

The Famous "Synko Song" Quartette and Dance in the First Act of "San Toy," Tuesday, January 9th.

"SAN TOY" COMING.

This Delightfully Charming Comic Opera Comes to Capital Theatre Next Tuesday, Jan. 9.

Dainty, tuneful and picturesque "San Toy" will be seen here next Tuesday evening, January 9, and there is already an interest manifest in its coming which insures it a rousing reception from playgoers. For as the clever Chinese musical comedy will be offered here by Mr. John C. Fisher, it will have the benefit of an exceptionally strong cast and in the mounting will present stage pictures which, for artistic elegance, have not been equalled in any previous production of musical comedy.

The story of "San Toy" tells how Yen How, a mandarin, to save his daughter from the emperor's harem, rears her as a boy. He succeeds in his deception until the girl, San Toy, falls in love with an English officer, when the secret leaks out and the mandarin is ordered to appear at the Court of Peking and bring the daughter with him. Yen How is in great danger of losing his head, but San Toy captivates the emperor and very speedily becomes the favorite lady of his court. For her sake the emperor spares her father's life and also gives his consent for her marriage to the English soldier, thus causing the final curtain to fall on as agreeable a climax as was ever designed for musical comedy.

It takes some time to tell the pretty story in detail, and there are moments when it looks as though it might be lost altogether in the conglomeration of songs, jokes, dances and magnificent groupings that are introduced, but everything is so tuneful, graceful and generally diverting that no one who sits through the two acts would suggest any curtailment of the time required to tell the pretty story. There are bits of "San Toy" which remind one of "The Geisha" and the "Mikado," but its own attractive features are so numerous nobody has time to figure out the points in which it suggests the other plays mentioned.

The score of "San Toy" has twenty-six delightful and original numbers, of which those most in favor with the public are "The Six Little Wives," the "Moon Song," "I Mean to Introduce it Into China," "Little China Maid," "Rhoda and Her Pagoda," "Chinese Sojer Man," and a whole lot more. The play is filled to repletion with solos, duets, quartettes and other concerted numbers, every one of which is clever enough to win encores. Mr. Fisher has given "San Toy" a setting which is strictly in keeping with the superiority of the cast he has furnished. Every costume used with the play is new; the scenery is also fresh from the studios and in every little detail there has been the closest attention in order to get the best possible results.

"San Toy" ran for over two years in London to crowded houses and remained in New York for an entire year. Mr. Fisher's present plan is to present it on the road for the first few months of the season and then open in New York for another run during the winter. In the cities that have already been visited the play has made a tremendous hit. The company numbers over fifty people, including the famous Daly Theatre Chorus and dancers.

THANKFUL PEOPLE.

They Are Found in Every Part of Frankfort.

Many citizens of Frankfort have good reason to be thankful for burdens lifted from aching backs, which they bore patiently for years. Scores tell about their experience publicly. Here's a case of it:

Mrs. Lou Johnson, of 325 Todd Street, says: "Off and on for a good many years, I have suffered with a heavy, dull aching pain over the kidneys and across the small of my back, the pain running up my back becoming very severe on the least exertion. There was also a weakness of the kidneys which produced an irregular, scalding and excessive condition. I was treated by doctors, and it seemed as though medicine did not act on me. My condition became so serious that I realized the necessity of some immediate relief. About this time a neighbor spoke so highly of Doan's Kidney Pills that I could not believe but that they had some merit. My daughter procured a box for me at J. W. Gayle's drug store, and after giving the remedy a good, fair trial, I can now conscientiously give my good recommendation and endorsement of what I consider a grand kidney remedy. Doan's Kidney Pills certainly carry out the claims made for them."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
